Introduction I - The Curriculum Project
This project is designed to provide a comprehensive overview of the curriculum for the Traveller Elementary Workbook. It includes a variety of activities and exercises that are intended to help students develop their English language skills. The project is divided into several sections, each focusing on a different aspect of the curriculum. The first section is on vocabulary, and the second is on grammar. The third section is on reading, and the fourth is on writing. The fifth section is on listening, and the sixth is on speaking. Each section contains a number of exercises that are designed to be both challenging and enjoyable. The project is intended to be used as a resource for teachers and students alike. It is a valuable tool for anyone who is looking to improve their English language skills.
